Guitarists: assuming you're playing capo2: Take the C major chord from the previous measure, and slide everything up 2 frets to create this Dadd4 chord. It should feel like x54030.

Other chord players, or guitarists in other tunings or without capos: best of luck here! If you can't find an Eadd4 voicing you like, F#m(add2) is another nice option
